Plaintiff, EMA Financial, LLC (“EMA” or “plaintiff”), by its undersigned attorneys, for its complaint, respectfully alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is an action for specific performance, a permanent injunction, breach of contract, and related relief arising as the result of defendants’ conduct in connection with certain agreements to purchase securities and a related convertible note agreement. After entering into negotiated, arms-length agreements, for which defendant TPT Global Tech Inc. (“TPTW” or “defendant”) received valuable consideration, TPTW breached the agreements, in numerous ways, including, inter alia, by: (i) failing to honor EMA’s notices of conversion, (ii) failing to establish, maintain and increase a share reserve, (iii) failing to register EMA’s shares, (iv) and by failing to become Rule 144 eligible within 6 months. Accordingly, plaintiff seeks the relief set forth herein.

FACT COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

13. On or about June 11, 2019, after arm's-length negotiations, TPTW executed a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “SPA”) and issued a Convertible Note to EMA (the “Note”) in the amount of $250,000.00. A true and correct copy of the Note is attached hereto as Exhibit A. A true and correct copy of the SPA is annexed as Exhibit B.

14. The Note provides that EMA, at any time after the Issue Date of the Note, has the right to convert all or part of the Note into shares of TPTW common stock (the “Common Stock”). Specifically, §1.1 of the Note provides in pertinent part:

The Holder shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, at any time and from time to time to convert all or any part of the outstanding amount due under this Note into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock.

Ex. A at 1.1.

15. Likewise, 1.4(a) of the Note provides that: “Subject to Section 1.1, this Note may be converted by the Holder in whole or in part at any time and from time to time after the Issue Date, by submitting to the Borrower a Notice of Conversion...”

16. As §1.2(a) of the Note dictates: “Calculation of Conversion Price. The conversion price hereunder (the “Conversion Price”) per share shall equal to the lower of: (i) the lowest traded price during the preceding twenty-five (25) Trading Day period ending on the latest complete Trading Day prior to the Issue Date of this Note (the “Closing Price”) or (ii) 55% of the lowest traded price for the Common Stock on the Principal Market during the twenty-five (25) consecutive Trading Days on which at least 100 shares of Common Stock were traded including and immediately preceding the Conversion Date.”

17. Further, under §1.4(d) of the Note: “Upon receipt by the Borrower from the Holder of a facsimile transmission or e-mail (or other reasonable means of communication) of a Notice of Conversion meeting the requirements for conversion as provided in this Section 1.4, the Borrower shall issue and deliver or cause to be issued and delivered to or upon the order of the Holder certificates for the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion within one business day after such receipt or such an event (the “Deadline”) (and, solely in the case of conversion of the entire unpaid principal amount hereof, surrender of this Note) in accordance with the terms hereof and the Purchase Agreement.”

18. In order to ensure that sufficient shares are available for conversion, §1.3 of the Note provides that:

The Borrower covenants that the Borrower will at all times while this Note is outstanding reserve from its authorized and unissued Common Stock a sufficient number of shares, free from preemptive rights, to provide for the issuance of Common Stock upon the full conversion or adjustment of this Note. The Borrower is required at all times to have authorized and reserved five (5) times the number of shares that is actually issuable upon full conversion or adjustment of this Note (based on the Conversion Price of the Notes in effect from time to time)(the “Reserved Amount”). Initially, the Company will instruct the Transfer Agent to reserve 34,965,000 shares of common stock in the name of the Holder for issuance upon conversion hereof. The Borrower represents that upon issuance, such shares will be duly and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

19. In order to ensure that EMA at all times has shares reserved in connection with the outstanding Note §5 of the SPA states that:

In the event that the Company proposes to replace its transfer agent, the Company shall provide, prior to the effective date of such replacement a fully executed Irrevocable Transfer Agent Instructions in a form as initially delivered pursuant to this Agreement and the Securities (including but not limited to the provision to irrevocably reserve shares of Common Stock in the Reserved Amount (as defined in the Note) signed by the successor transfer agent to Company and the Company... The Company warrants that: (i) no instruction other than the Irrevocable Transfer Agent Instructions referred to in this Section 5, and stop transfer instructions to give effect to Section 2(f) hereof (in the case of the Conversion Shares, prior to registration of the Conversion Shares under the 1933 Act or the date on which the Conversion Shares may be sold pursuant to Rule 144 without any restriction as to the number of Securities as of a particular date that can then be immediately sold), will be given by the Company to its transfer agent and that the Securities shall otherwise be freely transferable on the books and records of the Company as and to the extent provided in this Agreement and the Note; (ii) it will not direct its transfer agent not to transfer or delay, impair, and/or hinder its transfer agent in transferring (or issuing)(electronically or in certificated form) any certificate for Conversion Shares to be issued to the Purchaser upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to the Note as and when required by the Note and this Agreement; and (iii) it will not fail to remove (or direct its transfer agent not to remove or impair, delay, and/or hinder its transfer agent from removing) any restrictive legend (or to withdraw any stop transfer instructions in respect thereof) on any certificate for any Conversion Shares issued to the Purchaser upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to the Note as and when required by the Note and this Agreement

20. The SPA requires that the Company must maintain its listing on the OTC Markets and remain current in its reporting obligations. Under §4(e) of the SPA the Company must: “comply in all respects with the Company’s reporting, filing and other obligations.”

21. Section 3.19 of the Note provides:

Failure to Register. The Borrower fails to (1) file a registration statement covering the Holder’s resale at prevailing market prices (and not fixed prices) of all of the Common Stock (the “Registration Statement”) underlying the Note and Common Stock underlying the Note and Warrant (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) (the “Warrant”) within forty-five (45) calendar days following the Issue Date, (ii) cause the Registration Statement to become effective within one hundred twenty (120) calendar days following the Issue Date, (iii) cause the Registration Statement to remain effective until the Note is satisfied in full and the Warrant is exercised in full, (iv) comply with the registration rights agreement between the Borrower and Holder entered into in connection with the issuance of this Note, or (v) immediately amend the Registration Statement or file a new Registration Statement (and cause such Registration Statement to become immediately effective) if there are no longer sufficient shares registered under the initial Registration Statement for the Holder’s resale at prevailing market prices (and not fixed prices) of all of the Common Stock underlying the Note and Common Stock underlying the Warrant.

22. Page 1 of the Note provides that the Company must repay the unpaid interest and principal balance of the Note by June 11, 2020.

TPTW BREACHES THE AGREEMENTS

23. Despite its obligation to do so, TPTW failed to register EMA’s shares within 45 days of the issue date, as required by the Note and SPA.

24. In further violation of the terms of the Note and SPA, defendant was not Rule 144 eligible within 6 months of the issue date.

25. Defendant also violated the terms of the Note and SPA by failing to maintain a reserve of shares, despite EMA's request, as of November 21, 2019.

26. On July 17, 2020, EMA submitted a notice of conversion, seeking to convert the Note into 216,950,627 shares of TPTW stock.

27. TPTW failed to deliver the shares of stock by the one day deadline provided in the relevant agreements.

28. On or about June 11, 2020, the Note matured, but TPTW failed to pay or otherwise satisfy the terms of the Note.

29. On or about September 17, 2020, EMA issued a notice of default to TPTW.

30. Section 3.2 of the Note provides for a breach in the event that:

The Borrower fails to issue shares of Common Stock to the Holder (or announces or threatens in writing that it will not honor its obligation to do so at any time following the execution hereof or) upon exercise by the Holder of the conversion rights of the Holder in accordance with the terms of this Note, fails to transfer or cause its transfer agent to transfer (issue) (electronically or in certificated form) any certificate for shares of Common Stock issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note, the Borrower directs its transfer agent not to transfer or delays, impairs, and/or hinders its transfer agent in transferring (or issuing) (electronically or in certificated form) any certificate for shares of Common Stock to be issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note, or fails to remove (or directs its transfer agent not to remove or impairs, delays, and/or hinders its transfer agent from removing) any restrictive legend (or to withdraw any stop transfer instructions in respect thereof) on any certificate for any shares of Common Stock issued to the Holder upon conversion of or otherwise pursuant to this Note as and when required by this Note (or makes any written announcement, statement or threat that it does not intend to honor the obligations described in this paragraph)... It is an obligation of the Borrower to remain current in its obligations to its transfer agent. It shall be an event of default of this Note, if a conversion of this Note is delayed, hindered or frustrated due to a balance owed by the Borrower to its transfer agent...

31. Likewise, Section 5 of the SPA provides that Upon receipt of a duly executed Notice of Conversion, the Company shall issue irrevocable instructions to its transfer agent to issue certificates, registered in the name of the Purchaser or its nominee, for the Conversion Shares in such amounts as specified from time to time by the Purchaser to the Company upon conversion of the Note, or any part thereof, in accordance with the terms thereof (the "Irrevocable Transfer Agent Instructions"). In the event that the Company proposes to replace its transfer agent, the Company shall provide, prior to the effective date of such replacement, a fully executed irrevocable Transfer Agent Instructions in a form as initially delivered pursuant to this Agreement and the Securities (including but not limited to the provision to irrevocably reserve shares of Common Stock in the Reserved Amount (as defined in the Note)) signed by the successor transfer agent to Company and the Company.

32. TPTW also failed to pay the Note upon maturity.

33. Section 3.3 and 3.4 of the Note further provide for an event of default for each breach of a covenant, representation, or warranty made by TPTW in connection with the Agreements.

34. Based on the foregoing events, TPTW's failure to honor EMA's Notices of Conversion and other actions and omissions has given rise to one or more "Event of Default" pursuant to the terms the Note. In addition thereto, TPTW's conduct has caused multiple "Events of Default" to occur.

35. Section 8 of the Note outlines the negotiated-for and agreed-upon remedies for the differing Events of Default. Among other things, EMA is permitted to enforce any and all of plaintiff's rights under the Note and SPA, or otherwise as permitted by law.

36. Page 1 of the Note provides that: "Any amount of principal or interest on this Note which is not paid when due shall bear interest at the rate of twenty-four (24%) per annum from the due date thereof until the same is paid ("Default Interest")."

37. Due to TPTW's persistent and willful failure to remedy its various breaches, as of filing the instant action, default interest has been accruing at a rate of 24%.

38. Section 3.16 of the Note provides that, in the event of default, “all other amounts payable hereunder shall immediately become due and payable, all without demand, presentment or notice, all of which hereby are expressly waived, together with all costs, including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, of collection, and the Holder shall be entitled to exercise all other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.”

39. EMA has been, and continues to be, irreparably harmed by TPTW’s failure to honor the Notices of Conversion, failure to maintain a reserve, and failure to remain current in its required SEC filings.

40. Damages from TPTW’s failure to deliver the shares are inherently uncertain and difficult to calculate. Since the parties entered in the Note in June of 2019, TPTW’s Stock price has fluctuated widely.

41. Thus, the timing of conversions and sale of stock would be essential to the determination of damages. Because it is difficult to discern precisely when EMA would have sold the converted shares, and how many it would sell had the conversion been honored, calculating its losses is difficult.

42. All notices and prerequisites to bringing this action, if any, including notices of default, have been complied with or were waived.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF (SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE)

43. EMA realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

44. The agreements between plaintiff and defendant are valid agreements.

45. EMA substantially performed all portions of the agreements that were EMA's obligation to perform, except for those obligations for which performance was rendered impossible by virtue of defendant's breach. Among other things, EMA's primary obligation under the various agreements was to fund the purchase of the Note in accordance with the terms of the various agreements, which EMA performed.

46. Pursuant to the Note, SPA, and related agreements, TPTW is obligated to deliver shares of TPTW Common Stock pursuant to the agreement's payment schedule, as well as to provide with the transfer agent the necessary board resolutions sufficient to enable EMA to sell the shares publicly without restriction.

47. Despite its obligation to do so, TPTW has refused and failed to deliver said shares of stock to EMA.

48. TPTW has further failed to establish and increase the share reserve as required by the various agreements between the parties.

49. As a result of such failure and refusal by TPTW, EMA has suffered damages.

50. EMA has no adequate remedy at law.

51. In the absence of injunctive relief and specific performance, EMA will suffer irreparable harm.

52. EMA requests, therefore, that the Court enter an order requiring TPTW to specifically perform the relevant agreements, including the SPA, Note, and letter to transfer agent, and to deliver immediately to EMA the shares of its Common Stock pursuant to each notice and Notice of Conversion submitted, and to establish and increase the share reserve, as well as to provide EMA with the necessary resolutions, become current in its require SEC filings to the extent it is not, and to take whatever steps necessary (as per the terms of the agreement), sufficient to enable EMA to sell the shares publicly without restriction.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

53. EMA realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

54. The Note and SPA, are valid and binding agreements.

55. As set forth more fully above, TPTW breached the agreements. TPTW's numerous breaches of the agreement include, but are not limited to:

- (i) failing to honor the Notices of Conversion submitted; and
- (ii) failing to make timely filings with the SEC; and
- (iii) its failure to honor of the terms, conditions, representations and warranties of the SPA and Note; and
- (iv) failing to pay the Note upon maturity.

56. TPTW's conduct constitutes a breach of, and default under, the terms of the Note, SPA and related agreements.

57. EMA has performed all obligations of the relevant agreements that were its obligation to perform except for those obligations that it could not perform because of defendant's breaches herein.

58. TPTW's breach and default are governed by Delaware law under the terms of the Note.

59. EMA is therefore entitled to an award of damages in an amount to be determined at trial but in any event in excess of principal in the sum $7,614,967.01, including without limitation the balance of any portion of the Note that ultimately is not converted into shares, along with default interest, liquidated damages, and damages as provided for in the Note and by law.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF (PERMANENT INJUNCTION)

60. EMA realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in each preceding paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

61. §4.10 of the Note provides:

Borrower acknowledges that the remedy at law for a breach of its obligations under this Note will be inadequate and agrees, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Borrower of the provisions of this Note, that the Holder shall be entitled, in addition to all other available remedies at law or in equity, and in addition to the penalties assessable herein, to an injunction or injunctions restraining, preventing or curing any breach of this Note and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof, without the necessity of showing economic loss and without any bond or other security being required.

62. Pursuant to its obligations under the relevant agreements, TPTW is obligated to deliver shares of its Common Stock, along with the necessary resolutions and acceptance of the legal opinions furnished by EMA, sufficient to enable EMA to sell the shares publicly without restriction.

63. Despite its obligation to do so, TPTW has failed and refused to deliver said shares of stock to EMA as required by each of the Notice of Conversion and requests for shares under the settlement agreement.

64. Though required to under the terms of the Note and SPA, TPTW has failed to file the required documents with the SEC.

65. As a result of such refusal by TPTW, EMA has suffered damages.

66. EMA has no adequate remedy at law.

67. In the absence of injunctive relief, EMA will suffer irreparable harm.

68. Additionally, TPTW consented to an injunction when entering into the Note and SPA.

69. EMA requests, therefore, that the Court enter an order enjoining and requiring TPTW to deliver the shares of stock as called for in the relevant agreements in response to the Notice of Conversion, including any future notice of conversion, and requests for shares that were or will be sent and to honor future conversion notices.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF (COSTS, EXPENSES & ATTORNEYS FEES)

70. EMA realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in each preceding paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

71. In accordance with the agreements between the parties, TPTW agreed to pay all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred by EMA in collecting any amount under the Note or breach of the Agreements.

72. Section 4.5 of the Note states, "If default is made in the payment of this Note, the Borrower shall pay the Holder hereof costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees."

73. Therefore, EMA is entitled to an award against TPTW for costs and expenses incurred in the prosecution of this lawsuit, including reasonable legal fees.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff EMA seeks judgment against Defendants as follows:

i. On the First Claim for Relief, EMA requests that the Court enter an Order requiring Defendant to specifically perform the relevant agreements, including the SPA, Note, and letter to transfer agent, and to deliver immediately to shares of its Common Stock pursuant to each Notice of Conversion, and share requests, file the necessary filings in order to become current in their required SEC filings to the extent it is not, and provide the necessary resolutions and acceptance of the legal opinions furnished by EMA, sufficient to enable EMA to sell the shares publicly without restriction, and to establish and increase its shares reserve.

ii. On all Second Claim for Relief, for damages in an amount to be determined, but in any event in excess of $7,614,967.0; and

iii. On the Third Claim for Relief, the issuance of an injunction enjoining and requiring Defendant to deliver the shares of stock as called for in the relevant agreements in response to the Notice of Conversion that was sent; and

iv. On the Fourth Claim for Relief for an award of EMA's costs and expenses in prosecuting this action, including reasonable legal fees;

v. For such other further relief as the Court may deem just, proper, and in the interest of justice.
